UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BRIAN SETENCICH,

Plaintiff,

vs.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS, a non-profit corporation, STEVE BROWN, ROBERT
BROWNING and DOES 1 through 30, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.: C 07-03688 JCS

PLAINTIFF BRIAN SETENCICH'S
OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT
AMERICAN RED CROSS' MOTION TO DISMISS

Date : October 2, 2007
Time : 1:00 p.m.
Courtroom: 3
Judge: Hon. Sandra B. Armstrong

I.
INTRODUCTION

Defendant American Red Cross ("ARC") moves to dismiss Plaintiff Brian Setencich's ("Setencich") three claims against the ARC for (1) Association Discrimination (Cal. Govt. Code § 12926(m), et. seq.), (2) Fraud; and (3) Negligent Misrepresentation. Setencich opposes the motion to dismiss as to all three claims, but acknowledges that more specificity is required in pleading as to his fraud claim to identify which specific Defendant made the false representation to him and the approximate dates of such representations. Lazar v. Superior Court 12 Cal 4th 631 (1996).

1 Setencich properly pleads his first claim for Association Discrimination under the Fair
 2 Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA") which provides protection for any applicant who is denied 3 employment because of his association with another who is disabled, or a member of another 4 protected class under FEHA. ARC's attempt to restrict protection under FEHA is not based on any 5 relevant statutory or relevant case law authority. Likewise, Setencich sufficiently pleads his third 6 claim for negligent misrepresentation warranting denial of the motion. Setencich requests leave to 7 amend as to his second claim for fraud to provide the identity of those who made the fraudulent 8 representations to him and more detail as to the circumstances surrounding the fraud.

9 10 II 11 FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND PROCEDURAL HISTORY

12 Setencich was recruited in mid to late 2005 to work as the Communications Manager for the 13 ARC, reporting to the Director of Public Affairs and Communications, Marc Jackson ("Jackson")
 14 (Complaint, ¶ 2). Setencich was qualified for the position, filling an important need for the ARC.
 15 (Complaint, ¶ 2) Setencich met with the principals and hiring panel on three separate occasions, with 16 the decision being made by the Board to hire Setencich (Complaint, ¶ 15) Defendant (Steve Brown 17 and Robert Browning)<sup>1</sup> represented to Setencich they were going to hire him and that his 1997
 18 conviction of filing a false tax return concerning tax consequences of less than $10,000.00 was not 19 an impediment to hire (Complaint, ¶ 25). However, neither intended on letting the panel proceed 20 with the hire Setencich because of Setencich's association with Jackson (Complaint ¶ 15-17). ARC
 21 was attempting to terminate the Director of Public Affairs and Communication ( Jackson) by taking 22 pretextual discipline against him, defaming him and setting him up to fail by providing him 23 inadequate support. The action against Jackson were motivated by Jackson's disability, use of 24 medical leave and protected activity (Complaint, ¶ 3 and 15)

26
 27 <sup>1</sup>Steve Brown and Robert Browning were not specifically named as to the individuals who made the 28 fraudulent representations. As a result, Setencich requests leave to amend.

1 The hire of Setencich would have impeded the principals efforts to terminate Jackson given
 2 Setencich's knowledge and political clout. (Complaint, ¶ 25). Defendant was aware of Setencich's
 3 association with Jackson and therefore did not hire him, hiring a less qualified applicant (Complaint, 4 ¶17). The association between Jackson and Setencich was based on several year of working closely
 5 together when Setencich was on the Fresno City Council and Jackson was the Director of Public 6 Relations and Editor in Chief of the Metro News ( Complaint, ¶ 6). When Setencich was elected to 7 the State Legislature and became Speaker of the House for the State Assembly, Jackson was his 8 Chief of Staff. (Ibid.). The association continued when Setencich was Special Liaison to Mayor 9 Willie Brown and Jackson began working for ARC (Complaint, ¶ 7).

10 Setencich filed his complaint in San Francisco Superior Court on March 13, 2007. ARC
 11 removed the case on July 19, 2007 on the alleged basis of ARC must be sued in federal court 12 because of a federal corporate charter (36 U.S.C. §2) . The motion to dismiss was filed on July 24, 13 2007 prior to any meet and confer efforts by the parties.

14 15 III LEGAL ANALYSIS

16 17 A. The Legal Standard on a Motion to Dismiss

18 A complaint should not be dismissed for failure to state on claim under Fed. Rule Civ.
 19 Procedure 12(b)(6) "unless it appears beyond doubt that a plaintiff could prove no set of facts in 20 support of his claim which would entitle him to relief". Durning v First Boston Corp. 815 F.2d 21 1265, 1267 (9th Cir. 1987)(quoting Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 26 Ed. 2d 80 (1957). Sufficient 22 facts exist to support Setencich's three claims for Association Discrimination, Fraud and Negligent 23 Misrepresentation. The Association Discrimination and Negligence Misrepresentation claims have 24 been sufficiently pled. As to the Fraud claim, leave to amend is requested to provide the specifics to 25 the fraud as articulated in Lazar. ARC has brought a motion based exclusively on non-9th Circuit 26 cases interpreting the Americans With Disabilities Act ("ADA") and not the FEHA, which 27 Setencich's discrimination claim is based.

1 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure govern the sufficiency of a pleading in a federal action,
 2 even those based on diversity. ( FSLIC v. Texas Real Estate Counselors 995 F 2d 261, 269-270 (5th
 3 Cir, 1992). The Rules are extremely liberal and are designed specifically to minimize disputes over 4 pleading technicalities. ( See FRCP 1, 8(f), and Conley, supra at 47 -48).

5 Federal Rules provide for notice pleading. The pleadings need not allege facts constituting 6 the claim for relief or defense. They need only give fair notice of the pleader's claim so the opposing 7 party can respond, undertake discovery and prepare for trial. (See Conley v. Gibson, supra 355 U.S
 8 at 47-48). "[F]ederal Courts and litigants must rely on summary judgment and control of discovery to 9 weed out unmeritorious claims. . . ( Leatherman v. Tarrant County Narcotics Intelligence &
 10 Coordination Unit, 507 U.S. 163 (1993) . Unlike the practice in many states, the Federal Rules do 11 not draw distinctions between pleading facts, ultimate facts or conclusions of law. Schwarzer, 12 Tashima & Wagstaffe, CAL. PRAC. GUIDE: CIV PRO BEFORE TRIAL (The Rutter Group 13 2002)8:27; pp. 8-6. Setencich properly pleads the necessary facts as to the first and third claim to put 14 ARC on notice of the claim brought against it. As to the fraud claim, facts exist to meet the 15 specificity requirements under California law.

16 In ruling on a motion to dismiss, all allegations of material fact are taken as true and 17 construed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party. (Id). The plaintiff is not held to a 18 "heightened pleading standard". Swierkiewicz v. Sorema, N.A. 534 U.S. 506,515, 152 L.Ed. 2d 1
 19 (2002). If the Court should find that Setencich failed to provide sufficient allegations to state a claim 20 for which relief may be granted, respectfully request the Court grant leave to amend. A District Court 21 should grant leave to amend even if no request to amend the pleadings was made, unless it
 22 determines that the plaintiffs cannot be cured by the allegations of other facts. Lopez v. Smith, 2003
 23 F.3d 1122,1127 (9th Cir. 2000). Here, the fraud claim can be pled with specifics as to the individuals 24 who committed the fraud and therefore leave is requested.

25 B. Association Discrimination

26 ARC contends that although FEHA prohibits discrimination based on association, the 27 protection should be severely limited, relying on the 7th Circuit case Larimer v. International 28

1 Business Machines Corp. 370 F.3d 698, 700 (7th Cir. 2004) where the Court elected not to provide
 2 protection to a man who was terminated after the birth of his premature twins under the ADA.
 3 However, the 9th Circuit case has not adopted this restrictive view. Of most significance, the 4 Setencich claim is under FEHA, which provides significantly more protections than the ADA.

5 California Government Code § 12926(m) provides,

6 “race...physical disability, mental disability, medical condition...includes a perception 7 that the person has any of those characteristics or that the person is associated with a
 8 person who has or is perceived to have any of those characteristics.” California
 Government Code §12926 (emphasis added)

9 The ADA more restrictive association discrimination protection<sup>2</sup> provides:

10 “...excluding or otherwise denying equal jobs or benefits to a qualified individual 11 because of a known disability of the individual with whom the qualified individual is 12 known to have a relationship or association.” 42 U.S.C. §12112(b)(4) (emphasis added)

13 Under FEHA, Setencich must prove, (1) Setencich applied for a position with the 14 Red Cross (Complaint, §2, 14-15); (2) ARC refused to hire him (Complaint, § 15, 17 and 18); and 15 (3) Setencich’s association with Jackson, (who has a disability and engaged in protected activities) 16 was a motivating factor in not hiring him (Complaint, §18). (Judicial Council of California Civil 17 Jury Instructions (2007) CACI No. 2500).

18 FEHA provides broader protections for the employee than the federal statutes. Cal. Govt 19 Code § 12926.1 identifies that although the ADA provides a floor for protection, FEHA has always, 20 even prior to the passage of the Federal Act, afforded additional protections. The Supreme Court 21 explained in Aguilar v. Avis Rent A Car, Inc. 29 Cal 4th 121 (1999) that FEHA declares,

22 ‘As a public policy of the state that it’s necessary to protect and safeguard the right 23 and opportunity of all persons to seek, obtain, and hold employment without 24 discrimination. This Court has declared that policy to be fundamental.’ (citing Brown
v. Superior Court 37 Cal 3rd 477, 485 (1984). ‘Employment discrimination foments domestic strife and arrest, deprives the state of the fullest utilization of its capacities

---

 26 <sup>2</sup>In order to establish a prima facie case under the ADA for association discrimination, a plaintiff must 27 prove (1) the plaintiff was qualified for the job at the time of the adverse employment action; (2) the 28 plaintiff was subjected to adverse employment action; (3) plaintiff was known by his employer to have an associate with a disability; (4) the adverse employment action occurred under circumstances raising a reasonable inference that the disability of the associate was a determining factor in the employer’s decision. Hartog v. Wasatch Academy, et al 129 F 3d 1076 (3rd Cir., 1997)

1 for development an advance, and substantially and adversely affects the interest of 2 employers and the public in general' (citing California Government Code §12920)
 3 The express purpose of the FEHA is to 'provide effective remedies which will 4 eliminate such discriminatory practices'. (Ibid.) In addition, the legislature has 5 directed that the FEHA to be construed liberally so as to accomplish its purpose.
 6 California Government Code § 12993; citing Brown v. Superior Court supra, 37 Cal
 7 3d at 486 Aguilar v. Avis at 129.

8 Setencich properly pleads his FEHA claim, which provides protection to Setencich for the 9 failure to hire motivated by his association with Jackson. As a result, the motion should be denied.

10 C. Fraud

11 Setencich acknowledges more specificity is required for his fraud claim and he is able to 12 provide those specifics. Setencich pleads the primary elements but fails to allege specific individual 13 from ARC who made the fraudulent representations and the approximate date as required in the 14 California case of Lazar v. Superior Court, supra. 12 Cal 4th at 645. As a result, leave to amend is 15 requested.

16 D. Negligent Misrepresentation

17 Plaintiff alleges the following facts in his complaints: (1) A representation that an 18 important fact was true which was not in fact true; ( Complaint §25, 26); (2) made by the defendant 19 without reasonable ground for believing it to be true; ( Complaint §32) the defendant's intent to 20 induce reliance,(Complaint §25 and 26 ); (4) the plaintiff's justifiable reliance; ( Complaint §31) and 21 (4) resulting damage to the plaintiff. (Complaint § 31, 33 and 34) (Judicial Council of California 22 Civil Jury Instructions (2007) CACI No. 1903). As a result, the claim is sufficiently pled and the 23 motion as to this claim should be denied

24 IV 25 CONCLUSION

26 Setencich has pled facts sufficient to support his first and third claims against ARC for 27 Association Discrimination and Negligent Misrepresentation to warrant denial of the motion. As to 28

1 the second claim for Fraud, Setencich respectfully requests leave to amend to allege with more 2 specificity the particular individuals who made the fraudulent statements and the circumstances as to 3 each.
